explore the darker hinterlands of a world accelerating into a full blown immersion of techno materialism and its consequences for the human condition in an exceedingly relevant analysis of the modern technological world kingsley dennis demonstrates that humanity is rushing headlong towards a critical and decisive moment for human civilisation which he terms the threshold where the trajectory for human evolvment is facing counter evolutionary forces that not only reject the path of the human spirit but aim to sabotage our connection to it the threshold brings the reader face to face with the intensifying issues of technocracy transhumanism ai theology and false transcendence and the re defining of the biological human condition also examined are themes of reality distortion über nihilism planetary re shaping and environmental modification neo gnosticism the sacred and the profane and the task of evil in our current times dennis explains that humanity is currently experiencing intense times for these years are a precursor to the critical threshold where the future for humankind will be decided humanity both collectively and individually will need to choose between a future of deepening profane materialism what the author calls the will to technology or a life that recognises the presence of metaphysical truths and the rising capacities of spirit consciousness at this time unlike any other in known history in which the planet is engaged in a struggle for the presence of the human soul upon the earth kingsley dennis thought provoking prose offers a fresh perspective on the future of humanity

robert saler examines the small but influential death to the world movement in us eastern orthodox christianity presenting a case study in theological aesthetics saler demonstrates how a relatively small consumer phenomenon within us eastern orthodoxy sits at the centre of a variety of larger questions including the relationship between formal ecclesial and para church structures the role of the internet in modern religiosity consumer structures and patterns as constitutive of piety how theology can help us understand art and vice versa understanding death to the world as an instance of lived religion tied to questions of identity politics of religious purity relationships to capitalism and concerns over conspiracy theory helps us to see how studies of uniquely american eastern orthodox identity must address these broader cultural strands this book addresses the current crisis that threatens the rule of law and has led to the need for its adjustment as normative concept legal principle and pragmatic guideline for the behaviour of political players rule of law is a pillar of the constitutional orders and a key principle of national international and eu law yet rule of law is subject to pressure for change in the face of emergency crisis and transition this book explores how constitutional crisis emergency constitutionalism and constitutional polycrisis assert pressures for the transformation of rule of law and thus produce a state of flux it examines the rule of law from the viewpoint of constitutional imaginaries memory politics and identity politics it critically assesses the responses given by the eu and its member states to the current crisis the work also provides an analysis of the most important challenges to rule of law stemming from the performance of constitutional courts including the risks of judicial activism politicization of the courts and judicialization of politics the book will be an invaluable resource for researchers academics and policy makers working in the areas of constitutional law and political science how a force that s hard to name but which we all feel is reshaping what it means to be human in against the machine furiously gifted the washington post novelist poet and essayist paul kingsnorth presents a wholly original and terrifying account of the technological cultural matrix enveloping all of us with insight into the spiritual and economic roots of techno capitalism kingsnorth reveals how the machine in the name of progress has choked western civilization is destroying the earth itself and is reshaping us in its image from the first industrial revolution to the rise of artificial intelligence he shows how the hollowing out of humanity has been a long game and how your very soul is at stake it takes effort to remain truly human in the age of the machine here kingsnorth reminds us what humanity requires a healthy suspicion of entrenched power connection to land nature and heritage and a deep attention to matters of the spirit prophetic and poetic against the machine is a spiritual manual for dissidents in the technological age writers of novels plays and poems use their imagination with an evident freedom by contrast makers of christian doctrine seem to impose limits reducing the open ended meaning of images to exact concepts and summing up the loose ends of stories in one unified story but the author of this study sets out to show how images and stories in literature can actually help the theologian to make doctrinal statements while at the same time careful theological thinking can assist the critical reading of literary texts such a dialogue is worked out in studies of the poetry of william blake and gerard manley hopkins and the novels of d h lawrence iris murdoch and william going here the tension between the freedom of imagination and the limits of doctrine is seen to be only a part of more far reaching tensions of freedom in human life which account for a sense of fallenness and which a dialogue between literature and christian doctrine can do much to illuminate in all this the relationship between imagination and revelation is never far from the center of the discussion guiding a reader s travels to the furthest realms of conrad s imagination so as to penetrate to the heart of the novelist s moral vision is one of the author s dominant aims anyone disturbed by post modernist advocates of a new world order has much to ponder in this challenging book book jacket ernest renan was one of the most renowned european intellectuals of the second half of the nineteenth century yet the impact of his most popular work life of jesus has been underestimated when not altogether ignored while commonplace now the idea that jesus was merely human was at one time a novelty with significant socio political cultural and religious implications a case study in the russian encounter with modernity orthodoxy modernity and authenticity the reception of ernest renan's life of jesus in russia demonstrates that renan's book has had long lasting and broad appeal in russia because it presents an alternative to a strictly materialist worldview on the one hand and an orthodox worldview on the other renan offered his readers the possibility to accept the tenets of modernity while still retaining both an admiration for the importance of religion in history and a sense of religious feeling or even belief in a higher religious ideal assessments of renan's alternative belief system whether positive negative or mixed were often simultaneously evaluations of the moral socio political and spiritual condition of european society in general and russian society in particular the interpretive history of renan's life of jesus in russia reveals a persistent disillusionment with a strictly materialist interpretation of history and of life
